Election talk is all over.

Several tobacco beds were washed away by the heavy rains.

Mr. Duane Siddhu has the best lot of lambs in this part of the county.

Everybody wants to know who Fritz is. Keep guessing, you will guess right after a while.

Mr. Ben. F. Hallett is buying calves, paying fifteen dollars for anything that can beat.

The last crop of tobacco of this ridge owned by Mr. W. F. Clark, was sold last week for a good price.

The election passed off at Benson with one big fight, one little fight and Les. Collins a majority of forty.

We learn that one more mile is to be added to the Benson pike. Why not give us three more miles? We don't want any damage for where it runs. One good citizen says it strikes his chimney he will move it out of the way and not do damage.

A conversation took place in our neighborhood, some time ago, between two church members, one a Baptist and the other a Methodist, over the price they expected to get for their tobacco. "Well," says Mr. Baptist, "I get a great big price for my tobacco I am going to get the Methodist by shouting." "Yes," says Mr. Methodist, "and I get a little price for my crop I am going to get the Baptist by getting drunk."

George L. Hoey, Louisville, says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters, and it gave me almost immediate and great relief from dyspepsia."

Bridgeport.

Mr. W. F. Russell has been in Louisville this week.

Lester Terry has about recovered from his recent illness.

Foxes in abundance in this section. Trot out your dogs, boys.

Mr. J. D. Parent has been quite sick for some time, but is better now.

Miss Sallie Russell has returned home from a visit to relatives in Frankfort.

Mrs. Pass Scofield and her daughter, Miss Alma, have been quite ill for a week.

Several ladies and gentlemen, of this vicinity, form a fishing party at Black's pond to-day.

Miss Anna Belle Crockett is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Zouma Kirk, at Frankfort, this week.

Archib. Dupay arrived here from Detroit, Michigan, last Wednesday, and will reside here in the future.

Mrs. Julian Bailey and Miss Willie Hawkins visited their friend, Mrs. Ann Blakemore, at Partridge last Wednesday.

Dr. W. Lee Cramer was called to Lexington last Wednesday to attend his father who it was thought was in a dying condition.

The candy pulling at Mrs. H. Crockett's last Friday night was a source of much enjoyment to the young people of this section.

Mr. Wm. Scofield and Miss Bettie McWilliams attended the marriage of Mr. Wm. Baker and Miss Kate Rattiff at Bugdad last Wednesday.

Mrs. Katie Russell has returned home from a week's visit to friends in Frankfort, much to the gratification of a certain benefactor in this vicinity.

Mr. Spot Kent and wife, and their two sons, Everett and Ernest, of Clayville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Branch the first of the week.

Rev. L. H. Salin, of Owen county, preached in this place last Sunday night. Rev. T. J. Stevenson, of Frankfort, was present and assisted in the services. The former will preach here again Friday night, May the 4th.

Some one entered the residence of Esq. J. B. Russell last Sunday night, while that gentleman was at church, but owing to the fact that his wife was at home the burglar was frightened away without accomplishing his purpose.

WANTED.—To borrow $1,000, for one year. Will give mortgage on unencumbered real estate worth twice the amount, to secure payment of same. For information apply this office.

Large line of Irish trimmings at Runyan's.

Belle Point.

Mr. Thos. Deakins is visiting his brother, Dr. R. W. Deakins, at Sweet Home.

Miss Sallie Ziegler is visiting relatives in the Pleasant Ridge neighborhood.

Mrs. Capt. Pence, who has been sick for a week or more, is able to go about the room.

John E. Jones, of skating rink fame, was on the Point Friday morning, in a new light spring suit.

The Champion Saw Mill has hauled about eight thousand logs and is turning out about twenty-thousand feet of lumber daily.

The Steamer Francis Freese came up Thursday night with another large trip and returned Friday morning with a good load. She is the boat to patronize.

Mr. W. Roberts, while coupling cars at Bagdad last Sunday week, got his arm badly crushed. He is going about but not able to go to work yet.

Mr. Sam. Parrier, of South Frankfort, and Miss Anna Dwyer, married Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. L. A. Moore.

Thursday night will be the regular council meeting. A full attendance is desired as the question of raising the tax will be brought before the meeting. The amount of taxable property is about $50,000, according to the assessment of 1882, and at the low rate of 30 cents per hundred only amounts to $150. If it was all collected, which is never the case. All of this is paid out in holding elections, salaries of the Clerk and Marshal, &c. Now there are new streets to be opened, others to be macadamized, new walks to build, and the Clerk and Marshal want their salaries increased, so I am informed they only get $12 and $20 per annum respectively. Raise the tax.

Bloomington.

Who is the young man in the neighborhood that is studying the dialect of fishes, snakes, dogs, &c?

A certain gentlemen in the community is negotiating for a buggy and harness. He already owns one of the best horses in the county. This looks like he means business.

Everyone, so far as we have heard an expression, is desirous to have Mr. Thos. Sullivan accept the position of superintendent of our proposed Sunday school. In our judgment Mr. S. would be the best selection that could be made.

The suit at law which seemed inevitable a few weeks ago, between two of our citizens, of which mention was made in this column, we are glad to say, has been amicably adjusted and will doubtless remain so, unless we are visited by another flood, in which event it may be resurrected again.

Let as many Democrats as can from this district attend the mass meeting in Frankfort, called for Saturday, the 5th day of May, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Convention to be held in the city of Louisville on the 16th, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for Governor and other State officers.

Owing to the rain last Sunday there was nothing done toward the organization of a Sunday School, as announced last week. The weather permitting and no more accident occurs, the school will be organized to-morrow, Sunday, evening, the 29th, at 3 o'clock, p. m., at which time everybody in the neighborhood that is friendly to the enterprise is invited to be present.

It seems, judging from that poetical conclusion dedicated to Nipper, which appeared in last week's ROUNDABOUT, that our strictures on the name that is sometimes given to this beautiful elen of ours has raised the ire of one of those cunning Tigertons. With a constant desire never to incur the displeasure of one of those unengaged animals, we hope to be pardoned for saying that we fail to see where or how the piteous gate of our neighbor or any other evidence of progress in the community should be used as an argument either in prose or poetry in favor of holding on to a name which is only calculated to impose one with fearful forebodings, &c., &c.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The most successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not injure. READ PROVE BELOW

Saved him $1,800

ADAMS, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1882.
DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentl.—Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had a spaviny colt as was ever raised in Jefferson County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross-bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs in pieces. I employed the best farriers, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large, strong bone and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and the bone entirely off, and he sold afterwards for $1,800 dollars. I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and has always cured completely and left the leg smooth.

It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kendall's store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it but could not, they said I would write to you that you would send me one. I wish you would, and I will do so all the time.

Very respectfully,
E. S. LYMAN.

Jos. one of the leading farmers in our country, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of a remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order.

Yours respectfully,
C. O. THERRAND.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Stored at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 26, 1883.

Please bear in mind that the blue pencil mark X on your paper indicates that the time for which you have paid has expired and you are requested to call around and settle.

An enormous stock of Hamburg at W. T. Rynan's.

We are under obligations to Col. R. W. Scott for recent Florida papers.

A thin skin of ice formed in this locality Monday night, but those who profess to know say the fruit was not killed.

Fresh bread and cakes every morning at S. Fink's, St. Clair street.

Mr. Oscar Blakenmore, of this county, sold last week, to Gen. Thos. A. Harris, a full blooded Alderney cow and calf for $100. He also sold at the same time a pure blood Alderney cow to Mr. Cosine, of Lawrenceburg, for $75.

Mr. Will Roberts, breckman for the L. & N. Railroad in this city, while coupling cars at Bagdad Sunday, had his right forearm caught and badly mangled between the draw heads. Fortunately his injuries were not sufficient to make amputation necessary, and it is hoped he will soon be all right again.

Boy, what ails the horse? It needs Kendall's Spavin Cure. See their advertisement.

The Fannie Freeze came up Sunday with the heaviest cargo brought up by any boat in a long time. She was loaded so heavily that her gunns dragged the water, and she was compelled to leave 250 barrels of lime at Louisville. Competition is the life of trade but the people are standing by the Freeze and throwing the bulk of freight to her. The Mail Line will have two boats in the river and are fighting her hard.

Messrs Whitesides & McEwan shipped the first of the week a set of furniture to a party living in Leelle county. When a man passes through Richmond and Lexington and comes to this city to buy goods it is a pretty good sign that our merchants are selling at the lowest notch. And yet there are people living in this city who will send to Louisville and Cincinnati for goods rather than patronize our home merchants.

How to Invest a dollar and make five: Buy a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. See advt.

The heavy rain of Sunday brought up the river again Monday morning. A number of rafts of saw-logs belonging to parties from the Mountains, who had not succeeded in selling them, which were insecurely tied up to the bank near the Big Eddy, broke loose and came down stream about eleven o'clock, and created quite an excitement among the mill men. Efforts were made to land them all, but one was jammed into the drift pile at the Wooden Bridge and several went over the dam at the lock. The balance were secured.

One of the best things we have seen lately is the perfection foot cleaner. It is a scraper with two heavy brushes arranged behind it in such a manner that in drawing the sole of the boot over the scraper the foot, pass between the brushes, which are forced against the sides of the foot by springs and clean all the dirt from the upper of the boot at the same time the mud is scraped from the sole. It is a good thing, and everybody who has to sweep up after a lot of boys in muddy weather will be grateful to the inventor. Whitesides & McEwan have it for sale.

At a colored festival, just over the county line, near Alton, Anderson county, Saturday night, a difficulty arose between a man by the name Charley Brown, who lived in Anderson, and an employee at the Kentucky Military Institute, named Jerry Emerson, in which the former was shot and killed by the latter, the ball taking effect in Brown's head, just back of the temple, and passing clear through the skull. The trouble grew out of Brown insulting a colored belle, to whose affections Emerson laid claim. Emerson invited Brown outside the house to settle the matter, when the latter's sister interfered to prevent him from going, threw her arms around him and was holding him when Emerson fired the fatal shot.

Get Berberich to make your spring suit. His fits are the best.

Anderson county had two murders this week and Mercer one.

Mattie Baker, Louisville, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has given me complete relief from dyspepsia and general depression."

The Perfection Boot Cleaner is cheaper and better than a door mat. For sale by Whitesides & McEwan

The morning passenger train up yesterday morning ran over and killed two cows near North Benson Station.

At dinner time Wednesday all the waiters at the Capital Hotel struck. Their places were immediately supplied with others.

Hon. J. W. Lilly, member of the last two Legislatures from Gallatin county, has removed to Minnesota and been elected a magistrate at Crooktown in that State, where he has located.

Mr. Sam Pardee, of this city, and Miss Annie Quire, of Belle Point, were married Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Louis A. Moore, in the latter place, Elder George Darsie officiating.

Capt. John Sproule, father of Mrs. Judge Thos. H. Hines, is lying at the point of death at his home in Woodbury, Warren county. Judge Hines and family were summoned to his bed side the first of the week.

FOR SALE—Twine Binding Harvester. I have for sale a Walter A. Wood twine binding harvester, Renson for selling. I need money and have no wheat to cut this year. Address box 2, Jett, Franklin county, Ky.

The Perfection Boot Cleaner combines both door mat and foot scraper. One movement of the foot over the scraper and between the brushes cleans the mud and dirt from the sides and sole of the boot. For sale by Whitesides & McEwan.

A new turnpike is to be built in this county, from the Leestown pike to Duckert Station. The distance is only a mile, and the work is to be put under contract at once. Mr. E. W. Ayres, president, advertises in another column of this paper for sealed proposals to construct the work.

Miss Sallie Cannon, eldest daughter of the late Capt. John W. Cannon, and Mr. John P. Starks, of the firm of Crutcher & Starks, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, in this city, Thursday evening, by Elder George Darsie. They left on the 10:10 p. m. train for their future home in Lexington.

Messrs. J. E. Miles & Son have taken out all the machinery of their mill and are putting in an entirely new outfit and will hereafter use the roll process altogether. When the repairs are completed the City Mills will be one of the best appointed establishments in the country. The chilled steel rolls have been substituted for the old fashioned mill stones.

The sixty-fourth anniversary of the institution of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in this country was celebrated in this city Thursday night by Capital Lodge, No. 6. The membership assembled at their hall, in the Temple, on St. Clair street, at 7 o'clock, and proceeded to the Baptist Church, where an interesting lecture, giving a history of the institution, rice, and progress of the Order, was delivered by A. M. Hanson, Esq., Grand Lecturer for the State.

We are very glad to learn that our old friend, Landon S. Coleman, Esq., who has been under treatment at the Eastern Lunatic Asylum for two or three years past, is steadily improving, and the physicians in charge say that there is great reason to think that he will ultimately recover his mind. This will be a source of gratification to a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The recent storms, hurricanes, cyclones or whatever they may be called, which within the last few days have been so destructive to human life and property in Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Georgia, gives some emphasis to a suggestion that we have heard, that Frankfort is near the center of a district embracing about 200 miles north and south and 400 miles east and west, which is free except from destructive storms that any part of this continent.

Mr. Stonewall J. Glenn, of Leesburg, Harrison county, died at Emulsion College Thursday, of pneumonia. The remains, in charge of President Gilmore and a committee of schoolmates of the deceased, passed through this city yesterday en route for Leesburg, where the funeral took place.

A difficulty occurred yesterday morning at Burgin Station, on the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, between Hon. Phil. B. Thompson, jr., Congressman from the Eighth District, and Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, in which the latter was shot and killed by the former. There was a woman in the case.

The City Council, on Thursday night, adopted the plans of Mr. Oscar Cobb, of Chicago, for the new opera house. The old front is to be made use of, but considerably improved with balcony added, and the hall is to have a seating capacity of 900, with parquette, dress circle and gallery. The whole is to cost about twenty thousand dollars.

Tom McKee, who has already served one term in the Penitentiary for horse stealing, and who was wanted in Louisville on suspicion of having committed a second offense recently in that city, was captured at the house of his sister, in this city Tuesday night, by Officer Conway. He was taken to Louisville Wednesday morning, but the parties who lost the horse failed to identify him, and he was turned loose.

Mr. Edmund Power, who fell from the roof of a church in Danville last week, was brought home Wednesday morning. He is considerably mangled up, his left wrist being broken and his left leg so badly bruised that he cannot walk upon it, but he hopes soon to be about again. Had he fallen a little further out from the side of the church he would have alighted on the top of a picket fence and undoubtedly been killed.

Rhoda, the Herodian mystery, which has been on exhibition here for the past week, closed up business Thursday and left for Lexington yesterday morning. It is a well executed mechanical trick, and would deceive most anyone. While the young lady, who represents Rhoda during show hours, is apparently a head without a body, she is at other times a remarkably healthy looking individual of one hundred and sixty pounds weight. The show was well worth the price of admission.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, April 23d, 1883
Editor Roundabout:

Will you allow an old pedagogue to give his views to your readers, in regard to public school in 1883? Having had the honor of being a delegate in the late Educational Convention, from this county, I know that my views will differ with a great many with whom I have the honor to associate in that memorable body, but as we must discuss the question, I shall give my views by merely saying that they have been formed after ten years' experience in public schools of Kentucky.

I believe that all agree that our greatest need is money. Now I think that we can save some of our money by making some changes in the system. First, abolish the school commissioner's office, and save there by from $30,000 to $35,000 per year. The school commissioner is the greatest nuisance the system has to carry. There are 117 commissioners in the State, and I venture the assertion that there are not 17 of that number that do their duty under the law. In conversation with some of them, they said they were not paid enough to enable them to devote more of their time to the duties of the office. Poor fellows! did they not know that the pay was before they entered on their duties, and while they were electing one so strongly for the position? If the common schools have gone this far carrying these drones, would it not be a good idea to drive them out of the State? I will admit that there are some, but their name is not legion, who try to do their duty. I am in favor of making the county judge ex officio school commissioner, so far as visiting the schools is concerned. It never did the schools any good so far as my experience goes.

Now as to another change, and that is in regard to the school year. I believe that it would be best to change from 9 to 10, to 11, to 12, to 13, to 14, to 15, to 16, to 17, to 18, to 19, to 20, to 21, to 22, to 23, to 24, to 25, to 26, to 27, to 28, to 29, to 30, to 31, to 32, to 33, to 34, to 35, to 36, to 37, to 38, to 39, to 40, to 41, to 42, to 43, to 44, to 45, to 46, to 47, to 48, to 49, to 50, to 51, to 52, to 53, to 54, to 55, to 56, to 57, to 58, to 59, to 60, to 61, to 62, to 63, to 64, to 65, to 66, to 67, to 68, to 69, to 70, to 71, to 72, to 73, to 74, to 75, to 76, to 77, to 78, to 79, to 80, to 81, to 82, to 83, to 84, to 85, to 86, to 87, to 88, to 89, to 90, to 91, to 92, to 93, to 94, to 95, to 96, to 97, to 98, to 99, to 100, to 101, to 102, to 103, to 104, to 105, to 106, to 107, to 108, to 109, to 110, to 111, to 112, to 113, to 114,
